WISE MONEY ASTRAY

Long Shots Scoring Frequently at the Laurel Track.

FINISH OF LAST RACE CLOSE

Jacqueline Beats Wolferton by a Neck and Oakhurst Is Just a Nose Behind.

Persons who were lucky enough to pick out winners at Laurel yesterday won big money. These were the winners and their closing prices: Fatty Grub, 7 to 1; Extortion, 10 to 1; Veneta Strome, 6 to 1; Carlton G., 7 to 1; Sherwood, 8 to 5, and Jacqueline, 5 to 1.

Several horses were backed from long to short odds. Conspicuous among them was Sherwood, in the fifth race. He was the only favorite to win, and he rebounded his early friends handsomely. The card, generally, was a puzzle.

The first race was one which finished with more or less of a surprise. It had fourteen starters. Fatty Grub, trained by Nash and ridden by Stanley, figured to possibly run in the money. When the chalkers posted odds on Rosettaire some bettors had as high as 20 to 1. A mishap caused the odds to fall to 12, then 8 and then to 6, and some books refused to take the latter price. The alarm was false, as the fifth race showed.

Steady play went in on Old Coin, while Ralph Lloyd had backers. They were all counterfeits. Fatty Grub, the winner of the race, is by Ellington Shortcake. He was out for the bacon and brought it home. Fatty went quickly to the front, was never headed and under restraint by two lengths from Gerard, who beat out Stockton by a half length.

With Byrne on Battery in the maiden two-year-old race, speculators flocked to him toward post time and battered down his price. Extortion, a 12-to-1 shot, won by beating Mahubah a length. The latter was a like distance in front of Ambrose, who beat Afterglow by a head.

An Early Duet Race.

The third event was a selling affair at six furlongs. It was a pretty race to witness. In the early part Veneta Strome and Viley matched sprints and courage. Veneta Strome gained slowly but surely. Teen Viley's courage failed, and Veneta Strome drew away into a commanding lead.

Some looked to see the fourth brush take a lot out of the Ben Strome mare, but it did not appear to do so. In the stretch Kate K. made a gallant try, and it looked as if Veneta Strome had trouble coming. Kate K. could not get up, and Veneta Strome beat her by a length, while she led better than nearly two lengths. The latter was just able to beat the tiring Viley by a nose for show money.

The one and one-sixteenth miles handicap produced a small field in comparison with the conspicuously large ones prevalent at Laurel. The four starters were Guy Fisher, Kormak, Sebago, Flamma and Carlton G. They were rated along pretty much in the order named when they went to the post.

Carlton G. moved as if he were very stiff, and many who had taken a flyer on him regretted they had done so. Sebago was believed not to be able to go so long a journey. The crowd on Guy Fisher, and he was backed from 4 to 1 to 7 to 5.

When the horses assembled at the barrier Carlton G. awoke. He did not beat the barrier, but nearly did so. He was away like a shot. Stiffened muscles were converted into a stiffened pace, which the others had all they could do to follow creditably. Guy Fisher loafed in the latter part, but could not get within closer than four lengths of Carlton G. at the finish, the winner being under slight restraint.

The Sherwood-Burnett race was the six-furlong selling race neatly. Sherwood beat Hoffman by nearly two lengths, while the latter won the place from Cherry Seed by a nose. Hoffman had a bit of interference. Cherry Seed had lots of early speed.

Jacqueline's win in the sixth race, at one and one-sixteenth miles, was a remarkably clever performance. She was away slowly, but by gameness and a show of speed she came from behind and in a crucial drive she won by a neck from Wolferton, who beat Oakhurst by a nose. Oakhurst had faltered on the backstretch, but came again in the last quarter. The winner pulled up lame.

BADEN SCORES EASILY.

Takes Transylvania in Straight Heats From a Field of Four.

LEXINGTON, Ky., October 11.—Yesterday was Transylvania day at the fall meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association track and the annual large crowd was out to witness the trotting of this Kentucky classic. There were only four starters, and Baden so far outclassed his field that the finishes were void of excitement or interest.

The second race, for 200 class pacers, furnished more sport for spectators, as Earl Jr. gave the winner, William W. a race for the money, but in spite of all opposition the daughter of the Spy landed here in a straight heat.

The race for 200 class pacers was also decided in straight heats. Belle Ashland, driven by her owner, Chas. Davis, being the victor. The first accident of the meeting happened in this event when Lon McDonald, driven by Avery, and Meadowdale, driven by C. G. Cates, collided near the half and the drivers were thrown from their saddles and slightly injured. The blame was laid on Avery and Lon McDonald was allowed to start again. Meadowdale was allowed to start again and won third money.

TIME WORKED STEADILY.

Long, Hard Practices Featured Preparation for Game Tomorrow.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

TOMES SCHOOL, PORT DEPOSIT, Md., October 11.—The Tome foot ball team has been given long, hard work-outs in preparation for the Baltimore City College game to be played here tomorrow. The Baltimore City College boys were easy for Tome last week, but it is expected that they will be given a much harder game this week and Coach Muxter is seeing to it that the team is put into the best shape possible.

The game with the collegians gave the coaches a line on the new men and showed up some very good material, although it will take a large amount of training to make a championship aggregation out of them. Hager at half played a dashing game and has helped to solve the backfield problem. Millers who was substituted at end, played a remarkably fearless game and showed real foot ball instinct. Graff played the center position well, while Asmolo, Muck and Senor took care of the guard positions. Edsall was at his old position of tackle. Wintermute and Vetherill were also given tackle duties, and Davis, Christian, Miller

The Mark of Quality.

The College Man and "P-B" Clothes

COLLEGE MEN and men who "stay young"—those clean-cut, manly chaps—demand originality in tailoring and fabric. Not freakishness. "P-B" Clothes for College men are designed along refined, original lines: from carefully selected patterns—patterns noticeable this season for their clever colorings, their exclusiveness.

"P-B" College Clothes give you the actual satisfaction the tailorman anticipates, but seldom realizes. In "P-B" Clothes the final result is before you—try-ons, delays and disappointments are forgotten.

"P-B" prices are decidedly modest—quality always.

$15, $18, $20, $25

"I see tweeds are it in Phillie, Chi and little ol' New York"—said a tourist yesterday.

The gentleman was right, "tweeds are it"—this season.

You must see the "P-B" Shannon and Bannockburn Tweed Suits. Native patterns from the Emerald Isle and the heather land of the Scots. "They ha'e the beauty o' a hielan' lassie."

P-B HATS.

The name of a good shoe. The shoe for the man who demands originality in style and real comfort.

"P-B" HATS for men who know. New and exclusive fall styles in derbies and soft hats. Genuine quality at ordinary prices—and Keith were all given an opportunity to show their ability at the ends. Weems, Tuttle and Mueller did their usual consistent work in the backfield.

Coach Muxter is giving the team a general shaking up and it is expected there will be many changes in the line-up when the Blue and White warriors trot onto the field Saturday for their second hard battle of the year. Hulse, who was out of the game last week on account of an sprained ankle, is again back in his own shirt and may be able to take part in the fray.

The noise was deafening after it had become known that Marquard and Meyers would officiate at the battery for the Giants, while O'Brien, the spittin' expert, and Bill Carrigan had been selected by Manager Stahl.
